O R D E R

On June 10, 2010, Marilyn J. Waters filed a motion to intervene in this proceeding. The only person entitled to intervene as a matter of right in this rate-making proceeding is the Attorney General ("AG"), pursuant to KRS 367.150(8)(b). Intervention by all others is permissive and is within the sound discretion of the Commission.¹

In exercising its discretion to determine permissive intervention, the Commission follows 807 KAR 5:001, Section 3(8). That regulation requires a person seeking intervention to file a request in writing that "shall specify his interest in the proceeding."²

That regulation further provides that:

If the Commission determines that a person has a special interest in the proceeding which is not otherwise adequately represented or that full intervention by party is likely to present issues or to develop facts that assist the commission in fully considering the matter without unduly complicating or disrupting the proceedings, such person shall be granted full intervention.³

¹ Inter-County Rural Elec. Cooperative v. Publ. Serv. Comm'n, 407 S.W.2d 127, 130 (Ky. 1966).

² 807 KAR 5:001, Section 3(8)(b); see also EnviroPower, LLC v. Pub. Serv. Comm'n, 2007 WL 289328 (Ky. Ct. App. Feb 7, 2007) (holding that "the PSC retains the power in its discretion to grant or deny a motion for intervention").

³ 807 KAR 5:001, Section 3(8)(b).

In her request, Ms. Waters does not articulate that she has a special interest in this proceeding or that she is likely to present issues or to develop facts that will assist the Commission in resolving this matter. It is unclear whether Ms. Waters is a customer of Northern Kentucky Water District. To the extent that she is a consumer, the AG has been granted full intervention and has the obligation to appear before the Commission to represent consumers' interests.⁴

Having determined that the requisites of 807 KAR 5:001, Section 3(8), have not been satisfied, the Commission shall deny Ms. Waters' request for intervention. Nevertheless, Ms. Waters will have ample opportunity to participate in this proceeding even though she is not granted intervenor status. She may submit comments that will be entered in the record of this case and considered by the Commission. She may also keep abreast of the status of the case and filings by monitoring the case's electronic file located at http://psc.ky.gov/efs/efs_search.aspx?case=2010-00094.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Ms. Waters' request for intervention is denied.

By the Commission
